DEDICATION

Job 32: 8

"There is a Spirit in Man, and the Inspiration of the Almighty giveth him Understanding".

To the utmost glory of my God and Father.
For the cause of that which is good and appropriate.
To all that be willing to know.
The secondary dedication goes to my family: my Father, my Mother, my Younger brother, and my TRIO found friends. Whom God has circumstantially used to affect, shape, and teach my life the required instructions needed for realism in Him.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I acknowledge my Mentor that is the summary of a larger responsibility in my life: Mr. E.O. ESHO. My brother from another mother; Adebayo Segun, NCCF family house, Ondo zone. And the many more whom I may perhaps be allowed to thank anonymously, will recognize this piece as a product of their influence in one way or the other.

INTRODUCTION

Some things in life, as sincere and truthful as they are, are not a product of rigid human intentional composition. Some of these things are birthed in the place of utmost sub-consciousness, in the realm of leisure, moments of supposed intentionality, atmosphere of needful rest. These things, as much dependent they seem on things that are deliberate, they flow out of the sub-conscious moment of deliberateness. Only a few has come to recognise the presence of the unintended during the intended.

These 'unintended things' are at most times the communication of the sincerity of our hearts, the truth that some of us fight, the reality that we try to subdue or bury, the very essence of our humanity that having discovered is threatened by the things we have known differently. And at most times, the greatest threat to these 'Truths' is that they become too true to be believed.

The Experiential Knowledge

This Journal is in its uniqueness tagged "The Experiential Knowledge" because of the understanding of Alignment. Scribes of this new age are such God is using to bridge the gaps that has hitherto existed amongst various orientation of doctrines, and by the virtue of alignment, are able to not only write but also come into an experience that affords them the privilege to teach such that has been inspired through them and validated not by blind assumptions or quotes but by realities of life. The words contained in this journal may sound unbelievable. Some, compared to your years of experience may seem deceitful. Regardless of what they seem, and beyond the ability that "words" have to communicate the truth in them, I ask that you look deeply beyond the letters, listen not to the pronunciation but the truth, pay attention not to the grammatical composition but to the intentional sincerity of a heart, beckoning to your sense of conviction.

WHY?

Because there is no absolute truth of life. Everything is a precursor of one thing or the other, and they also have their antecedents in other affairs of life. The things we have come to know today, are products of generally accepted perceptions, and heightened opinions of respected individuals. Not because they are wrong or right, but because they are products of experiences that guides the inexperienced.

ABSTRACT

THE EXPERIENTIAL KNOWLEDGE Journal 24,

This Journal is a selective collection of various writings and teachings of mine at one time or the other over the past 1 year (2018-2019), such which had its first and second edition as Journal 23& 24. It is for me a medium of acknowledging the grace of God upon me as well as propagating the possibilities in the Kingdom of God, especially for a Scribe as myself. These life producing insights has in one way or the other in their different sphere of posting, oriented and re-oriented individuals as it appeals to them. The effort to put them together in this journal is to help aggregate the widely spread knowledge into a single piece for individual consumption and consistent reference.
It is tagged "the Experiential Knowledge" because these writings have had their templates in my recent discovery and understanding of the Ministry of Ancient Scribes, the Scribal anointing and their superior distinction to what we have today restricted to the art of writing and journalism.

KINGS, PROPHETS AND PRIESTS

Arrogance of a King

It is not Arrogance for a King to Rule,
For that is why he is there.
Some of his actions you may not agree with
But his kingship is not for one,
But for all.
Ruling to him is a permissible act
To you it may be arrogance
Much more than your view
The kingdom interest is that which is paramount

To be a King and wear a Crown
Is a thing more glorious to them that see it,
Than it is pleasant to them that bear it.
The head wears the crown,
And so we see him in glory
The heart bears the burden
And so the heart stance is hidden
Heavier than the capacity of the head
Is the weight of the crown
Only a strong heart can carry its burdens.

Call of a Prophet.

A prophet is not necessarily someone with special visions

Or special ability to see the past or future.

A Prophet, much more than that is such that stands in the present

With the privilege of seeing the future,

Not merely so that you and I may know,

But so that the Counsel and Legislation of the Lord

May eventually stand.

Call of a Priest.

If there be one who rules; a King he is called
And the other make known God's counsel,
Legislating; such is a Prophet,
There need be one whose existence validates rulership
Making known what a good reign should be,
Giving insight to what the heart recognizes as right or wrong;
These are known as Priests.

There is a reason why the contemporary world believes
That the Judiciary should be Independent.
It is for the same reason the Ancient civilization believes
In the sacredness of the Priest:
For who best to establish the Divine nature in Man's heart
As to what is Right or Wrong than 'the Priests?'

HONOUR

God through a Man

When you look at a Man of God,
Indeed, he is but a man.
Do not look at the man,
Look at what He or She represents
in the Spirit.
Remember! There's a difference between BUHARI and the PRESIDENT OF NIGERIA.

They that have gone before us

If we all are to Enter the Kingdom of God,
Forget not that it is through a narrow gate
And at such, we may be on a line,
For some would be in the front and some at the back.
Whichever you are,
Forget not to ask those in the front
What they can see or have seen that keeps them moving ahead.
Don't be too arrogant to ask from the Fathers.
We cannot all be on the same page of Spirituality.
Hebrews 7:7

DIVINE DIRECTION

Lord! Direct my path

When things do not go the way they should go.

So many times it is not necessarily because we are confused.

No! We are not.

It is not even because we don't know what to do. Yes, we do.

The Only challenge is that:

We are leaning on our own understanding.

AND He is not Directing our paths.

One of the ways you will know you are leaning on your understanding

Is that; there will always be other options.

But when we Trust God to direct our steps and paths.

We have a surety that there is no better option.

The Voice of the Lord.

The Voice of the Lord does not have to be necessarily LOUD.

It has a way of being perfectly heard

By the quietness of our mouth

And the stillness of our Souls.

A god CALLED MAMMON

The fight for a Soul

The Quest, Fight and Pursuit of Success or Prosperity

Is not really for Money.

It is a fight for your Soul;

A Contest for your submission to God.

How much of your Individuality and Person can be lost

In the process of pursuing Success.

Babylon: A system

Anything that place an embargo on Your Belly,
Threatens your notion of Survival
Via Hunger, Poverty, Money, Job or even Success.
Is a System of Babylon;
Designed principally to make you lose your soul gradually.
For Some have lived and are living a good life and prospered.
But their souls are not prospering.
Our society is not smiling;
It is forcing people to chase after Money in different guise.
Not because it doesn't have what it takes to take care of us.
But because all the forces that antagonizes anything called "GOD"
Is frustrating people to substitute their pursuit of God
For the pursuit of the Creation (Money) –
All in the name of Survival.

GOD'S REPUTATION

There's a Purpose to me.

Success to Me; Is the evidence of God's potency to be a perfect Creator
I Know He would not have His creation Marred
There is a Purpose to making me.
My success is not ensured in anyone's' ability to understand it
Rather, your ignorance of it makes it a Mystery.

I'm a Brand Name

The reputation of every Manufacturer is their "Brand Name"
They would do anything to protect it.
I AM GOD'S REPUTATION;
I Carry His Image,
The imprint of His person, strictly for His Name's Sake,
He would cause me to Succeed
Because My Success adds to His Portfolio of Being God.
HE IS MY MANUFACTURER

The greater good.

At times it is not necessarily because we are Special
Or better than others.
Some things just fall in place for us,
through us and by us.
Just for the sake of the Greater Good.

TRUTH

Truth and Lies

For he is a fool who knows only the Truth.

But not the difference between the lies and the Truth.

It is not good enough knowing the Truth

But also knowing the difference between the lies and the Truth.

Anyone can know the truth if they are smart enough.

But the wise is he who knows the truth

And the difference between the truth and the lies.

Pretense

The More You gain by pretending,

the less you are actually going to Have.

Duty

Duty isn't always about honour,

For there are times where duty can make us dishonourable.

This is because honour has never been for Duty to confer on a Man

Rather it is a privilege to work

To show how honourable we can be.

Sabbath Indeed

Sabbath, is the Day of Rest.

Not of Sleep or Relaxation,

We get that every day.

It is such rest in God's presence

That keeps us reminded we have Peace and Joy in Christ.

The essence of a Settled Life.

HEART STANCE

Belief System

Some people's social Media status

Is the direct expression of their life stance and how they feel.

Displaying it cannot hold water or change the situation.

But a believers' Status is and should be

The Demonstration of your belief System.

For we are not ruled by Sight. or Feeling

Working of the Inner Man

One of the greatest work God can ever do through any Man

Is such that is being wrought on our inside.

Do not neglect the working of the Inner man at any time.

A mystery of Possession and Access.

When you possess you are obligated to manage,

When you have access, you are not necessarily obligated to manage, y

You sometimes don't even incur the expense of damage.

Possession and the tendency to manage is hinged upon a stature,

If you don't have that stature,

Even when you possess, your resources will be frustrated,

Cos you are in the stature of Access not possession.

Behind the Veil

When we enter into God's presence through worship,

It is our heart stance that comes behind the veil.

Worship songs are alignment mechanism.

JUSTICE

Know Intimacy not Supremacy

Why some would not see God in the end,
Is not because they are Not Good, Nice, Humble or Kind. They are.
But because they have in their lifetime lifted Knowledge
Lifted Intellectualism,
Lifted Cultural Understanding,
Lifted Societal Disposition
Above the Knowledge of God.

Though they know He (God) exists,
They reference His supremacy,
And not His Intimacy.
God will reign not with them who know about Him,
But with them who walked and lived Life in Him,
With Him and Through Him.

Man's Justice

Man's Perception of good and bad,
Right and wrong is our definition for Justice;
Which at most times is sentimental,
We perceive strictly by what we SEE.
Good and Bad, Right or Wrong,
To God are necessities of His Nature of being Just.
He alone has the perfect yardstick of what is and what be not.
His Justice system is not measured by what we do,
Nor by what He sees
But by What He Chooses
The pleasures of His Counsel and
Who He Is (the Lord God Self-Sufficient).

Plead Guilty

In the Court of this world.
Mercy is a rare commodity.
No matter how merciful an Earthly Judge wants to be,
If the people or prosecutor disagrees
It may not be granted.
In God's Court.
Every Judgement no matter how great is at the Mercy of MERCY.
For mercy prevails over judgement.
God's Court doesn't expect you to be perfect,
It only expects you to plead guilty.
And you are Free.

JUSTICE! Anywhere on Earth,

In this depraved world; Is BLIND.

To the world system, the Truth is only what can be Proven.

That's why you can be Guilty and clever and still be acquitted.

But God's system makes no enquiry.

For Nothing is Hidden before Him.

So only Plead guilty and be acquitted...

MERCY

MERCY! IS what has until now guaranteed the Relevance of you and I

On Earth and In Time. In contrast to all our self-destructive attempts by the day.

MERCY! Is the agency through which our possible Success is hinged upon, contrary to our struggle and effortless human endeavours.

MERCY! Is the Mediator of our ignorance,

The guarantor of our Significance,

The redemption of our wasted drifting from God,

Still ensuring our Safety.

Contrary to the Schemes plotted by the world System

To make us Useless.

Grace

GRACE! Is a divine mechanism

Available to help our ever-failing inabilities and attempts

To stand right with our Creator.

Fashioned from a Civilisation called "LOVE"

Expressed in an entity; Christ.

YOUTHFUL STRENGTH

Beyond the Postings

A Sad generation with Happy pictures and Happy Postings.

Good as it seems,

It is a hypocrisy of man's heart

Unhappy and dissatisfied with themselves and their kind of lives;

YET with supposed happy pictures and online postings.

The glory of the Youth

The glory of the Youth is Our Strength.
You can choose today to give unto GOD
The strength and freshness of your Young Life.
Not play gamble and Hope that He would accept
The REMNANT of your old age,
Where you no longer are valid in His agenda,
For ages and generation
For the agenda needs shoulders to bear it
Not frail ones, but such filled with strength to the bones
In old age, there' s little to be done
When you no longer matter in Kingdom matters
You are but become a liability seeking asylum.

I don't have time

It is not totally true
When we say we do not have time
It is what we have to do
And the things we do or have done with it(time)
That we need to REVISIT.
To justify if we had not indeed had time

Spirit Media

Funny how people on social media celebrate and follow celebrities
With thousands of followers:
With their own data
At their own cost, and nothing to show for it.
YET Some constantly despise and refuse to follow HIM (Jesus Christ)
He has the highest number of followers
Both online and offline.
His is not a social media,
But a Spirit-Media,
Where the heart is the access of true witness and followership.

Opinions Can be "Kept to Yourself"

The Way some people will say they are disappointed in another person.
You then begin to wonder
If their opinion had ever mattered to that person's life before now,
Or will ever matter to it hereafter.
And at the humour, they say: "It is my Opinion".
Whoever said it is not yours?
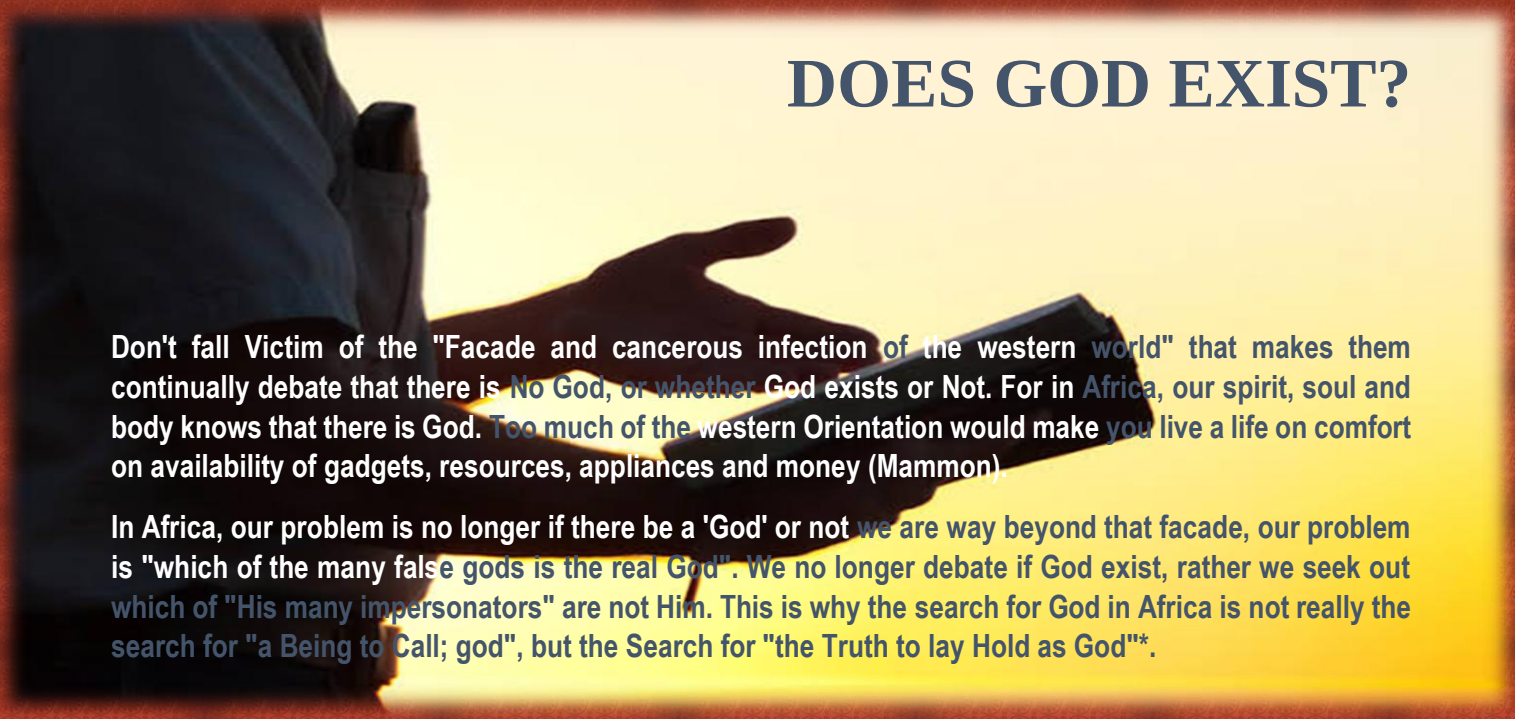
The statement of Fact is That Opinions Can be "Kept to Yourself".

DOES GOD EXIST?



Don't fall Victim of the "Facade and cancerous infection of the western world" that makes them continually debate that there is No God, or whether God exists or Not. For in Africa, our spirit, soul and body knows that there is God. Too much of the western Orientation would make you live a life on comfort on availability of gadgets, resources, appliances and money (Mammon).

In Africa, our problem is no longer if there be a 'God' or not we are way beyond that facade, our problem is "which of the many false gods is the real God". We no longer debate if God exist, rather we seek out which of "His many impersonators" are not Him. This is why the search for God in Africa is not really the search for "a Being to Call; god", but the Search for "the Truth to lay Hold as God"*.

So herein lies my theory:
If people believe that God does not exist, that only means that there exist a God, whose existence we have Chosen not to believe in.

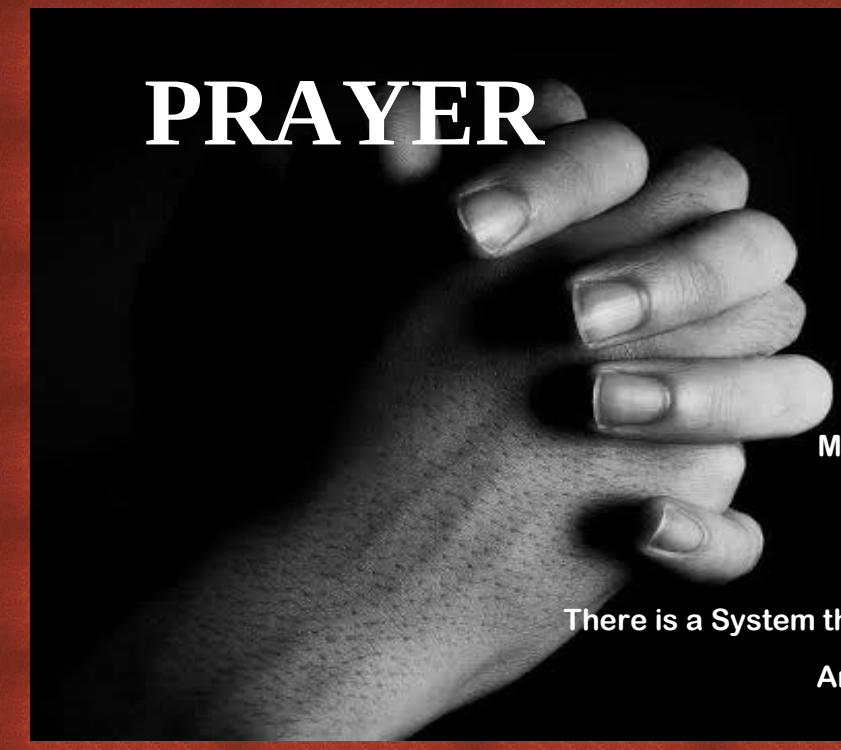
Secondly: If people believe that there are many gods, regardless of How many names we have come to call Him. And our major controversy lies in whether it is the same God or not. It only means that there is God who has many attributes and based on the uniqueness of these attributes, we have refused to embrace other perspectives and testimony about this God, and at such have named Him, and Limited Him to our varying Cultural dispositions. This also insinuates that the "God" that we all subconsciously agree exists. Is way beyond any individual, societal, cultural or religious disposition. And it is impossible for one perspective of a Culture to capture Him as whole.

Then we are all tempted to ask, who then is God? Which of the religion serves the real God? What if there was no God in the first place; that we only think there is because we want to believe in something beyond ourselves.

Then the real question would be: If Man invented many things Hitherto. And has come to believe that nothing exists unless being created, invented or developed by man. Who 'Invented' Man?

So many people, one of the reason God has not crowned our effort of traveling outside the country Yet. Is because He wants you to muster enough knowledge and heart for Him, now that you are still under an Atmosphere that believes He exists. So the little of Him you know won't choke under the atmosphere that does not believe He exists or have regard for anything in Him. So don't envy them that has refused to regard Him.

PRAYER



It is easy to evaluate a situation
And think, I can do this by myself,
So I will not trouble the Lord in prayer
Or ask the Holy Spirit to help me.
Most of the time, we don't necessarily say it,
It is the dispositions of our heart
Based on comfort and familiarity.
There is a System that guarantees Deliberate Life Possibilities
And Kingdom Relevance. It is Called Prayer.
It cannot be Cheated.
It works for those who engage it,
Profitable for them that believe in it.

FRAILTY OF MAN

Addiction

Power is the Worst Kind of Addiction.
Cos those who are addicted to Her,
Fails to see their own fall.

Everyone is Dying

Everyone is Dying
Some people are just closer,
So it becomes obvious.

WE all need help

WE all need help,

But we generalize our issues,

We do not define it,

This generalization makes us REFUSE to see God as a Helper.

Choose Life

All human lives in 2 worlds simultaneously:

The physical and the spiritual.

The difference between believers and unbelievers

Is where they choose to operate from.

All of us are by default going to die

The difference is who are those who will Choose

To live even after death.

Can't guess with my life

HOLY SPIRIT!

My stay on earth is too short to guess with my life.

Help me live life as you would have your days prolonged through me.

Not as I suppose of myself.

Make me walk, and Lead me on thy path of Righteousness.

Make me live life aright.

As I grow by the day,

I discover that there are many things that I am ignorant of.

Not necessarily because to a large extent I am not knowledgeable,

But because the system of human reckoning called understanding,

Is relative to our specific kind of growth for who we are meant to be.

This is why everyone is more knowledgeable than the other

In one way or the other, our expertise only differs.

He's responsible for us

We think we are all in-charge,
The subconscious sensational glory of enjoying taking care of people,
Being good to people and being responsible to people –
YET we daily refuse and deprive GOD the glory
Of being RESPONSIBLE FOR US.

Counsel of the Preacher

This edifying piece is a product of meditation on one of the counsel of King Solomon; the preacher.

Ecclesiastes 10:16 Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

What crime is it to have a rightful heir on the throne? Not just an heir but a young one? Or of what wrong can it be to have rich princes of noble birth take to feasting in the morning? Yet the preacher on account of experience and wisdom says "woe to you, O land!"

The only wrong of a land, such of which the preacher acclaims woe upon is the status of the King; "when your kings is a child". But some people would say regardless of the age, a King is a King. As true as this may seem, kingship is an office such that places a demand to be met regardless of biological legitimacy. The eligibility of a person for Kingship is not only hinged upon the biological validation of right alone. This is because in the mandate of an average glorious Kingdom, every king and heir is important, but the glory of the Kingdom is much more important and of far greater priority than the status of him who claims it. For there would be no King without a Kingdom.

Galatians 4:1-24:1 "Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; 4:2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father".

The above scriptures help us to understand that there is no difference between an heir who is a child and a slave, this is because the reasoning of a child differs and would remain as that of a child regardless of the position he finds himself. I.e. Kingship does not confer maturity on a child when installed a King. Kingship does not confer manhood, neither does it automatically transform a child's reasoning — for the person and the office are two different entities.

1 Corinthians 13:11 "When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

This Scriptures gives us a vivid view of the status quo of a child — that the stature of being a child is not only bodily, or by the reason of height, but also it is internal. A child would speak, understand, think like a child and still embrace childish things. And we know that being a King and the affairs of a Kingdom are things that require a growth of stature that is beyond bodily height.

On the strength of God's covenant — that wherever the sole of our feet shall step, He will give it unto us, we can deduce that it is not necessarily the acquisition of the land or being a king over the Land that is wrong or being frowned at.

1 peter 2:9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light;

The above also legitimises whatever claim you and I have over all that be on earth and on land. So if the land is not the problem and being a king on the land or a heir to the throne is not a problem, what then is the problem? The problem is found in the stature of the king or heir. By stature, I do not infer physical height, but a growth of the intrinsic requirement of being a Man. What makes a Child is not his shortness, but his thought pattern, his reasoning, his understanding faculty and speaking mind. So for a person to grow into the needful stature, it is not the physical stature (such that is measured in height, body mass, facial beauty or even socio-environmental affluence) that is needed to grow, but the intrinsic stature (measured in sound judgment, an understanding heart, social intelligence and spiritual intelligence). This is the same thing that Solomon knew when he wanted to be king in Israel after his father David:

1 Kings 3:7 And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I [am but] a little child: I know not [how] to go out or come in.
1 Kings 3:9 Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

Solomon acknowledged to God, that he is now a king, but being a king is not only by being the rightful heir, so he asked God for a growth, a maturing such that is needful in being a king. Here, Solomon juxtaposed the stature of a child, to deduce what he lacked that he needed. He knew a child would speak as a child, but the speaking is out of the abundance of the heart (the heart that facilitates the thinking and understanding system of a person), so he juxtaposed the heart stance of a child with the heart stance required of a king and placed his request before God (In 1 Kings 3:9 above). He asked for an understanding heart that will facilitate a speaking and a thinking like a king.

As established earlier that kingship is an office, and the office will always perform its function, the office will always rule, admonish judgement regardless of who is occupying it. The only clause is that the manifestations that comes from the office is determined by the stature of the king, whether a child or an adult. This is why the preacher frowns at the possibility of a misfortune (woe) that befalls a land that has a child as a king.

One of the challenges in our days, is that we have being taught on how much of a king we are, of how of royalty we are, the possibilities that are resident in our being heirs and joint heirs with Christ, and at such many of us are in blind pursuit of the manifestations and the expectations of a king and an heir of the Kingdom of God. But we have not come to understand that our being heirs and kings is hinged on our growth in stature.

In the kingdom of God, because the mandate of the Kingdom is far more important than our manifestations as heirs, possibilities and access are censored, permitted and apportioned into fragments and a hierarchy of growth. I.e. the things we can do and are permitted to do are a result of the access we have at a particular stage of growth. So as believers and Christ followers, we should not at any time neglect the place of growth. And our pursuit of growth should not only be for manifesting alone, but we should also seek a growth entrenched in character and mind development after the mind of Christ. This is because there are some decisions of the Kingdom that would and should be taken not on the strength of the power of a king, but through the love of a king for the land. Knowing that as much as a king need to judge the land on righteousness (dealing with the wicked and saving the righteous), the Kingship of the land is upon both the wicked and the righteous. God who is also our king is both the king of the good and the bad, causing the sun to shine upon all. In the same vein for the sake of the superiority of the mandate of the kingdom, we must learn and grow in a mindset of Christ, that considers more of the Christ-life, Christ-reasoning, Christmindset, than exploits, though they are all in the capacity of Christ. The heart of king (believers) must not be consumed by power, nor too simple or complacent, but must be able to balance the two, through growth.

The scriptures encourage us to do away with these things. So if you agree with me that you are a King, then you would know that you are not permitted to be a child in growth; Spiritually and all round — for if you are; your semblance is of a servant. And if we claim to be a king, the first validation to such claim is not necessarily the crown or the fact of being rightful heir (though needful), BUT the status quo of our heart growth. Are you a child? Which Mind is in you?

THE KINGDOM AND TRIBES

This means as kings that we are our perception of life and the body of Christ must change, for a King cannot only say I am king over this tribe alone and not the other tribe, for they are all of the same kingdom and he should judge all equally. If you are a king, a spirit being as such, you do not segregate or permit envy — you embrace all under the banner of love. Part of the potential of a king is not necessarily in the expertise to be a friend to all, but on the expertise of being able to unite all in a common interest. We may not agree with some individuals in the body of Christ through their doctrine (I.e. their Tribal traditions within the same kingdom), but it is of necessity that we are at peace with them, in the unity of the Faith; through a common interest called, Christ. The Kingdom mandate is exalted above tribal traditions (doctrines).

Another perspective to the childhood nature of a king accursed by the preacher is seen in:

1 Corinthians 3:1 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. 3:2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. 3:3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

Apostle Paul equates carnality to Childishness — stating that there are individuals who are Christians and have given their lives to Christ by receiving Jesus as their saviour, but these ones are still “Babes” because they are being fed with milk and not solid food, these are them that still permit envy, strife and divisions. (And such in our days: Denominationalism) comparing churches with churches, preferring a denomination over another and refusing to see them for the ministry God has called them to. These ones are babes, children.

Ecclesiastes 10:16 Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

The second dimension of the scriptures speaks of PRINCES. Eating or Feasting in the Morning. WHAT COULD BE WRONG WITH THIS?

Princes or noble men are part of the governing council of a land, these ones are determinant of the success and glory of the kingdom. They represent the people's interest to the king, they mediate between the desires, the comfort, the interests of the people in agreement with the mandate of the Kingdom. So if these ones fail in their meditation, the Mandate of the king and the kingdom may not be effectively carried out, which will lead to a decline in the glorious growth and expansion interest of the kingdom. Likewise, if these princes and nobles fail in their duty to adequately aggregate the interest of the people before the king, the people may rebel and begin to seek their interests.

These princes, are the "principalities" of the Land, they are in charge of certain aspect of stronghold within the land. These princes do not have crowns to their head. But they are key to decisions of the land. And for them, the problem is not their position or stature: it is their act. Feasting (Dinning and Wining). In this context, these princes cannot afford to feast in the morning, because for princes feasting is a thing of the evening, after every matters of the state have been addressed in the morning. This is not to say they cannot eat, they can eat, but are not to give themselves to feasting, because feasting is supposed to be a deliberate planning of celebration which includes dining and wining in honour of a successful action, decision, achievement or victory. The morning time for princes is the time where they gather together for deliberations on things that pertains to the running of the Kingdom.

For the principle of governance believes that the Morning is the active hours of the day where things that needs urgency are invested strength into. Now imagine if the custodians of the counsel of the lands, instead of deliberating, stoop to feasting every morning. What would be the lot of the land?

Then some would say the curse "woe" is to the land and not the king. Truly it is, but what kingdom establishes the kingship of a king without a Land? The land is that area of influence where God has situated you and I. If you and I refuse to grow up and we remain a child, we will become disastrous to our areas of influence — And such area would be void of any growth or development. For the fate of the land (areas of life) is intertwined with that of the king (you and I).

In Destiny, there are many times where we will occupy the office of a king, and in the course of this office, and for the greater good of the mandate of the kingdom, there are times we will be needfully occupying the position of a prince or noble in some areas of life and influence or sometimes even in the lives of others. At these kind of times, God brings us into people's lives as princes top facilitate their growth based on what we have learnt and experienced, such areas of life that we have gained mastery of and have become lords ourselves. Same applies to people that God has hitherto brought into the lives of you and I as Princes (such as Mentors, Spiritual Fathers, Disciplers, Coverings and many more) whom the Lord has put in place to counsel you and I towards God intention through their experience, exploits and masteries. If they fail to be who they are in our lives, if they fail to take up the positions, or even face their own life alone. What would be our lot?

That is why beyond demanding their prayer, take out time to pray for them. Beyond expectations, sow into their life. Let them not be the one to mandatorily love you for sake of the responsibility of being a prince over you, You and I also need to reciprocate the love. For is a fact that everyone love feasting, when they then choose to be in gap for your destiny and mine. We must appreciate them for taking up such responsibility.

They are princes: They may not have the influence you have, or be privilege to be in the position you are; but they are Kingmakers, they have of most importance in our growth from being a Child to a king in this Kingdom of Light.

When we talk today on government or governance, an average human being or even an average Nigerian is disinterested. Not because they are not concerned but because they have chosen to narrow their concern to their immediate life. The fault in world governance, the continuous and unceasing failure of the government and various administrations over the years in being able to make life better for the people has contributed to the disinterest and avoidance of people and even disbelief (lack of faith) in any possibility of hope that anyone may seemingly proffer when it comes to government and governing.

The Devil, for a fallen person in a fallen state, is also doing quite fine in his attempt to get many of us on the wrong notion of what governance is, and at such many people when they hear about government they don't ever even think that God can have a part in it or even buy any idea that it can be better, because government has been seen an agency and institution solely controlled by darkness and that anything God cannot have anything to do with governance.

"I instituted Governance not Politics".

The above are the very words God gave me one day after my heart incessantly asks for the possibility of achieving a good government in this nation Nigeria. And since then I come to be disinterested in politics, but believe a nation can be great, when they choose to understand the God perspective about Governance, and not only understanding but also reverting back to it.

IN THE BEGINNING IT WAS NOT SO.

Genesis 1:26. And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.
27. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.
28. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

From vs 26, we understand that God the father was speaking to an "us"(the council of Godhead) about His intentions. He said let us make man in our own image. In the creation reality of man, the intention for creating man was that man would govern over earth eventually, have dominion over all that God has created, hereby becoming an extension of the personality of God to govern ─ we then see that vs 26 was an intention, vs 27 through to 28 was the process of realization where God created man in His own image. Verse 28, the Bible recorded that God blessed them and the reason for the blessing is to be an empowerment to make the intention possible.

God blessed them and God said to them "…'Be fruitful and Multiply' fill the earth and subdue it…". So the governance capacity of man to have dominion is hinged upon the obedience to be fruitful and multiply. How then do we become fruitful? But what the devil has successfully achieved in our days is his old scheme of always wanting to shift our gaze from 'the command' to only 'the intention'.

It is good to cherish the intention of God, it is good to possess the will of God and be happy ─ but it is best to follow also the command attached to the intention. God's intention is quickened and would be brought to fulfillment without any disturbance if we cherish the command, the way we cherish the intention. So the principle of governance states that: For the blessings of the intention of God to come to effect, the command of the intention must be adhered to.

Deception, Illusion, Façade, Clouded Judgment, Bias Perception, Revelation of half Truth amongst many other facilitated vices are the means through which the devil has been able to refrain you and I from the Truth. The devil is skilled at making us run after a portion of the Truth, or even a dimension of God's intention, hereby making us ignorantly neglecting the command of God that validates His intention.

Man on eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, got so much familiar with some basic knowledge and spiritual intentions of God and due to such enthusiasm and exposure to the vastness of knowledge, we were and have been blinded to various commands (Spiritual laws and principles) that validates those knowledges. Many of us have run off from God on our little exposure to knowledge, intentions or even will of God and by so doing we say what we know about God does not work. It is not that they don't actually work, it is that their workability and functioning is hinged upon commands (Spiritual laws and principles) of intimacy, of fruitfulness that compels the heaven to part with mysteries and reveal secrets unto men.

This is to say that 'dominion is an intention', a counsel of God that will without controversy come to play, while 'fruitfulness and multiplicity is the command'. Meaning that for every child of God to dominate, such persons must have known God (Intercoursed, abided in God) through which there would have been an exposure to mysteries, secrets and spiritual laws that commands the blessing of multiplication that validates dominion.

THE FAULT OF MEN

On his success over generations, the devil has narrowed our focus to the place of dominion and that is why for decade upon decades, century upon centuries now, man has always had this inherent trait to dominate one another — such faulty side of dominion that has birthed countless dictators, imperfect monarchs and victimizing deliverers. From one generation to another we have focused on the dominion aspect of God that Kingship as an office has hitherto faultily metamorphosed over the years. Men began to have Kings, Chancellors, Prime-Ministers, Presidents, Governors, Chairmen, Dukes, Wardens amongst many of them, changing phases and names, but yet have failed to give people peace or good life.

No matter how much we have tried to camouflage it, we sons of men have failed woefully in our attempt to make a better living for our fellow men. For it was never part of our dominion mandate. All that God created was to be under us, but not our fellow men. This is why if we do not sooner revert to the natural floor plan of Kingdom Governance — we will continually chase shadows of hope thinking we can help ourselves through any humanly created institution.

THE SYSTEM PROTOTYPE

During the call of Abraham, the bible never recorded that he was called out of a kingdom, rather out of his own people and through the lifetime of Abraham, it was not said of him, Abraham that he became a king, yet the blessings of God upon him conferred on him the attributes and things associated with a king; servant-soldiers, land, wealth e.t.c. this is because dominion is established in obedience which is the core value of servitude.

God's kingdom is established on obedience to God our King, and then you might want to ask me what are we? God exposed us to the Priesthood dimension of His kingdom, for therein is our royalty (kingship) validated.

1 Peter 2:9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

God wants us to obey Him, serve Him and by doing this, He can trust us, entrust us and install us as kings to represent his interest on His creations. This is why all through from Genesis to Exodus till the children of Israel were established in the land as Israel. God never introduced or brought a king to them, but he introduced to them Priesthood; To worship Him. He exposed the priesthood dimension of Governance, because they already have Him to be their king.

Having established to the children His intentions of being their king and ministering to them through the priesthood dimension of governance, from Aaron down to Eli ─ God decided, due to the failure of the children of Eli, and disregard for the person of God, the word of God in those days was scarce. God wanted to introduce the prophetic (creative and revelatory) dimension of governance to Israel by conferring Samuel to be a priest and a prophet ─ so they would not lack the justice system of God and the legislative intentions (legal system) of what God wants them to do. For He did that with them in the wilderness where He, God was the king, Moses served as God's prophet and legislator while Aaron served as the emblem of His judicial system. He wanted us all to understand that these three (3) offices are one and go hand in hand. As the Trinity are one ─ God the Father; The King, the executive, Jesus our High Priest; the judicial entity of the Godhead and the HolyGhost the legislature; the legal entity of the Godhead's implementation.

But again the devil came and shifted the focus of the people from God's intention and they (the Israelites) requested for a "king like other nations". So also in this recent generations we have sought out various inventions for ourselves through politics, supposed hereditary monarchy, different forms and types of government, trying to through our faulty knowledge seek out peace on the shoulders of the world. This is why we expend millions and billions trying to maintain the arms of government (executive, legislature and judiciary) that is supposed to maintain us.

But until we revert to this initial intention of kingdom governance, where we permit only God to reign, we may be going nowhere or making progress in this failed game of man trying to lead man.
